

Viet Nam Revisited with S. Brian Willson

Sunday, July 10, 2016
2:30 PM

Unite Oregon (formerly CIO) office
700 N Killingsworth (near Albina)

The famous Air Force veteran/anti-imperialist activist will describe how this year's trip to Viet Nam was his first "voluntary" return to that country. S. Brian Willson is the author of Blood on the Tracks and the subject of the new documentary "Paying the Price for Peace."

Note: Brian's talk is scheduled to take place after the Peace and Justice Works summer quarterly meeting, which begins with a vegetarian potluck from noon to 12:30 PM, with the meeting from 12:30 to 2:00, in the same location.

Event coordinated by Peace and Justice Works Iraq Affinity Group.
