

REPORT FROM KABUL 2017

with Professor Zaher Wahab

Eyewitness Afghanistan

Wednesday,
July 26, 2017
7:00 PM

Multnomah Friends
Meeting House
4312 SE Stark

Zaher Wahab, a native of Afghanistan, will present a critical analysis of the political, military, economic and cultural situation in that war-torn country. Zaher, formerly a professor at Lewis and Clark College in Portland, is director of Graduate Studies and the Center for Teaching and Learning at the American University of Afghanistan. He has been traveling to Afghanistan every year since 2002 to help rebuild the Afghan Higher education system.

This event is free but donations are accepted to help pay for Zaher's travel costs and the use of the venue. No one will be turned away for lack of funds. Doors open 6:30 pm, Zaher at 7:00 pm.

*Event coordinated by Occupy Portland Elder Caucus.
Cosponsors include Peace and Justice Works Iraq Affinity Group, Oregon Physicians for Social Responsibility, and KBOO.*
