Local Code Pink staff person Cody Urban will appear as part of a panel discussion linking the issues of climate change and war, update the community on US belligerence in Iran and Venezuela, focus on the US's role in the war on Yemen, touch on US presence in Iraq, Afghanistan and Syria, and more. Sahar Yarjani Muranovic, Executive Director of Oregon NOW, will address US policy in Iran. Dan Shea of Veterans for Peace Chapter 72 will talk about Venezuela, having visited that country in March 2019. There will be an audience Q&A after the panel presentations.

One reason organizers chose this date is that it's expected that Portland City Council will be considering a resolution opposing US intervention in Iran on Wednesday, November 13 at 3:30 PM.

The forum is cosponsored by Peace and Justice Works Iraq Affinity Group, Veterans For Peace Chapter 72, Portland Central America Solidarity Committee, Jewish Voice for Peace-Portland and KBOO Community Radio. It is endorsed by the Pacific Green Party. Free event-- donations accepted-- no one will be turned away for lack of funds.
