

A Nuclear-Free Future: It Takes Everyone

Remembering Hiroshima and Nagasaki

August 6th, 2009

6:00 pm-7:00 pm

The Japanese American Historical Plaza
at Waterfront Park downtown Portland
(at Couch Street, just north of the Burnside bridge)

A-Dome Hiroshima Photo courtesy of Hugo Kitty

Diverse community organizations request your presence at the annual Hiroshima Ceremony on August 6th. Please join us in honoring the 200,000 immediate victims of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki nuclear weapons attacks.

This event will highlight movements on multiple fronts from city mayors, heads of state, the United Nations, and grassroots activists.

Add your voice, energy, and effort to accomplish A Nuclear-Free Future.

Featured speakers and performers are Margaret Eng,
Chisao Hata and friends, Ronault "Polo"LS Catalani,
Goudarz Eghtedari, Yoshie Yamasaki and Lyn Nutter, Emily Hill,
Dr. John Pearson, Mayor Adams and Thousand Waves

The event is free and open to the public.
Seating is on the grass; bring a blanket or chair.

Sponsors- Oregon Physicians for Social Responsibility, Japanese American Citizens League, Portland Branch of Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Ecumenical Ministries of Oregon, Peace and Justice Works, Oregon Hiroshima Club, SGI-USA Buddhists, American Friends Service Committee, Metanoia Peace Community-United Methodist Church, Hanford Challenge, United Nations Association of Oregon, Portland Japanese Garden, City of Portland, Office of Human Relations, Japanese Buddhists, Thousand Waves, Portland Peaceful Response Coalition, Kol Shalom, Community for Humanistic Judaism, Great Vow Zen Monastery, Multnomah Friends Meeting, American Iranian Friendship Council, Hanford Watch

FOR INFORMATION CONTACT OREGON PSR at 503-274-2720